Yousafzai, Malala, and Christina Lamb. I Am Malala the Girl Who Stood up for Education and Was Shot by the Taliban. W. Ross MacDonald School Resource Services Library, 2017.

This a quote stated by Malala that I found important to support her story.

“Malala Fund: Working for a World Where All Girls Can Learn and Lead.” Malala Fund | Working for a World Where All Girls Can Learn and Lead, malala.org/.

I used this picture of Malala when she was younger to show her past.

Pulitzercenter. “Life in the Swat Valley.” Pulitzer Center, 16 Feb. 2017, pulitzercenter.org/reporting/life-swat-valley.

I wanted to use a picture of Pakistan during the time of the Taliban reign to show what they have done.

“Ziauddin Yousafzai on Being a Feminist Father: I Raise My Children to Fight for Equality.” Penguin

Books UK, 26 June 2019, www.penguin.co.uk/articles/2018/nov/ziauddin-yousafzai-on-being-a-feminist-father-malala/.

Malala’s father loved Malala and wanted the best life for her and I thought this picture represented that perfectly.

Hewitt, Bill. “Malala Yousafzai’s Life Today.” Parade, Parade, 4 Oct. 2013, parade.com/170586/billhewitt/malala-yousafzais-life-today/.

Malala’s family had a large impact on her and it was very important to include a picture of them with her.

“Malala’s Story: Malala Fund.” Malala’s Story | Malala Fund, malala.org/malalas-story.

Malala obviously had a hard time at school and so did the other girls that were in her class.

Everyone in the picture were fighters for continuing to go to school each day.
